The URL <http://www.polygeneration.org/> was reserved for the Polygeneration in Europe web page. The concept of the page was developed and the layout designed. www.polygeneration.org is now online and contains a polygeneration definition, content sections which will be constantly filled with information (such as case studies), place for publications, links etc. The primary links of the web page lead to the ManagEnergy web page of the EU and to the PolySMART project. Within the course of the project, visitors will be able to search in a database for polygeneration projects, applications, resources etc. Visitors are also welcome to participate and contribute information.
