In order to transfer the information of PolySMART to outside of the consortium, the partners have been encouraged to participate in relevant international conferences. A list of these conferences has been elaborated and is kept up to date.

Several partners have taken part in such conferences and have given a presentation about PolySMART or about results of the project. The participation has been documented; the conference slides or papers are displayed for download on the public part of the project web site, see the screenshot below.

Screenshot of the public project web page, section 'publications': PolySMART partners were encouraged to take part in international conferences to present the project. The conference slides or papers are collected there and can be downloaded.

For future conferences, the activities concerning the participation in international conferences will continue. By the end of the project an extensive variety of conference papers is expected, which contributes to a good publicity among experts.
